

Stream No. 16 Cont'd

bay goes dry at low tide for a distance of 1,000 feet at low tide. Visit Sept. 12, 1926,---1,000 fish for all of them.

No visit 1927. Allowed for.

Stream No. 17 (No marker) Esther Passage. Reds Lake. There is a small lake here and a few reds go into it. Allowedfor humps.

Stream No. 18A Esther Passage. Small and short. 1,750 fish Aug. 10, 1927.

Stream No. 18 (2 notices) Esther Passage East side. There are 3 streams here: One 30 feet wide and 10 inches deep, accessible 1,000 feet above high tide line; the other about 12 feet wide and 4 or 5 inches deep, accessible about 500 feet. All have good gravel bottom, the large one a little coarse. About 5,000 fish spawned here, humps and dogs, visit Aug. 11, 1926. August 10, 1927 visit 3,500 fish.

Stream No. 18B Esther Passage. Small and short. 1,300 fish, August 10, 1927.

Stream No. 19 (No notice) College Flord. 2 miles south of Coghill Point. Is 14 feet wide and 3 inches deep. Has a fine gravel bottom. Should be accessible for quite a distance, country all flat. About 2,000 fish here,--humps and dogs--visit Aug. 11, 1926. No visit 1927. Allowed for.